1           ***RECORDING 1105 - DAHL/CHIEF KARL TURNER/KEVIN PETERS***
2   MS. DAHL:  Hi, I'm here to see Chief Turner.
3   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  Well, he is not here yet.  You can come in
4           and wait on him or...
5   MS. DAHL:  Sure, that's fine.
6   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  All right.  [INAUDIBLE]  Let me -- let me
7           think that one over.
8   MS. DAHL:  Okay.
9   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  You can sit here or I can put you in his
10           office, whichever you prefer.
11   MS. DAHL:  Sure, I'll hang out back there.
12   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  Okay.  [INAUDIBLE]  Come on in, that way if 13           you've got something you need to take of, you can.
14   MS. DAHL:  I've got you.  Thank you.
15   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  You're welcome.  He says that he's still in 16           the meeting [INAUDIBLE] will be here ASAP.
17   MS. DAHL:  Okay, that's fine.
18   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  So I don't know how long he'll be.
19   MS. DAHL:  Okay.
20   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  Do you want something to drink?  Do you want
21           a water?
22   MS. DAHL:  No, I'm good, but thank you.
23   UNKNOWN FEMALE:  Okay.
24   ***LONG PAUSE***
25   MR. TURNER:  Kat, how are you?

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: I'm good. How are you?
2 MR. TURNER: I'm fine. I'm sorry.
3 MS. DAHL: That's all right.
4 MR. TURNER: They swore we'd be out by 4:00. They lied.
5 MS. DAHL: Yeah, well, that's how it usually goes.
6 MR. TURNER: [INAUDIBLE] we just stay until it's over. We
7 don't have a choice.
8 MS. DAHL: I completely understand.
9 MR. TURNER: Kat, do you mind if I..
10 MS. DAHL: Oh, no, you're good.
11 MR. TURNER: Do I need a mask?
12 MS. DAHL: I'm going to keep my on just because I've been 13 trying to be...
14 MR. TURNER: You sound like you've got a cold.
15 MS. DAHL: ...really cautious with my asthma, so...
16 MR. TURNER: Do you have asthma?
17 MS. DAHL: I do. I do, which makes this whole situation a
18 pain, that's for sure. Every time I think, oh, you know,
19 my chest is little bit tight, is it COVID or is it
20 something I've lived with my whole life.
21 MR. TURNER: Do you have to carry an inhaler and that kind of 22 thing?
23 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
24 MR. TURNER: Do you?
25 MS. DAHL: Yeah. Oh, yeah. I've had it since, I think, like,

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 the first or second grade, so it's a pain, but yeah.
2 MR. TURNER: I thought you grow out of that sometimes.
3 MS. DAHL: You do. I apparently was not one of the lucky
4 ones.
5 MR. TURNER: Maybe you're not done growing yet. Look at it
6 that way.
7 MS. DAHL: There you go.
8 MR. TURNER: Maybe there's still hope. Let's talk about the 9 Williams case for a minute.
10 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.
11 MR. TURNER: I know apparently, I guess, you have some 12 concerns about it or...
13 MS. DAHL: Yeah. So when I was first approached about it back
14 in I guess it would be, like, three or four weeks ago now, 15 they approached me about felon in possession case with the 16 ammunition. And upon being told the details of the case,
17 I kind of became concerned that simply prosecuting for,
18 you know, felon in possession, you know, I'm happy to do
19 it if no other avenue -- if there's no other avenue
20 available, but it appears to me that this is something
21 that should be explored more fully with, you know, as far
22 as the rape charges themselves and whether or not this
23 individual has anything on his computer. The whole baby
24 doll in the safe makes me think that, you know, this very 25 well could be an individual who has child porn on his

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 computer or something of that nature. I wouldn't be
2 surprised if there were many more victims other than the
3 20 on the list, you know, because the two that came
4 forward were not on the list. So, you know, God knows how 5 many people there actually are. And, you know, I did the 6 math on sentencing. He would only get about four or five
7 years with his history for a felon in possession case.
8 MR. TURNER: Uh-huh (Affirmative).
9 MS. DAHL: I mean, if he really does have that number of 10 victims, it's my opinion that he should be doing 20 or 30.
11 MR. TURNER: Yeah. And I'm not familiar with everything on 12 the rape side of it. I know -- I think there's a journal
13 with people's names on it that...
14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
15 MR. TURNER: ...we suspect may be rape victims, but I don't 16 know for sure in that regard.
17 MS. DAHL: Right.
18 MR. TURNER: Regardless of what he wrote on the note or 19 whatever it was on. I'm not sure. I think that came 20 about when they were doing the search with the girl that 21 fell out of the window.
22 MS. DAHL: Right.
23 MR. TURNER: And we didn't have anything to charge him with 24 there as well.
25 MS. DAHL: Right.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: But I think we seized his safe and some -- maybe
2 the ammunition came as a part of that search.
3 MS. DAHL: Yes, yes.
4 MR. TURNER: And so I guess that was -- even though there was 5 no charges and we don't suspect he did anything with the 6 girl that fell out of the window...
7 MS. DAHL: Right.
8 MR. TURNER: ...I don't think we'll ever know for sure. I
9 mean, even she didn't remember a lot of it, I think, after 10 the fact.
11 MS. DAHL: Right.
12 MR. TURNER: Just due to her injuries and her treatment, I
13 guess. She remembers falling, I think, but she didn't 14 implicate him in any way.
15 MS. DAHL: Right, right.
16 MR. TURNER: But I think some of the other things -- and, you
17 know, he's popped up before on us as far as traffic things
18 and just some minor stuff like that. Now, I think there's 19 also some discussion of drug sales, but...
20 MS. DAHL: Right.
21 MR. TURNER: ...from what I understand, it's not anybody in 22 the area. It would have to be somebody he knows that he
23 could sell to. I don't think...
24 MS. DAHL: Right.
25 MR. TURNER: You know, an informant that he doesn't know, I

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 don't think he's going to sell to them. I just think that
2 he's -- you know, his family must have some money. I
3 think he's more of a social drug user. He probably sells
4 maybe to people that he's friends with...

5 MS. DAHL: Right.

6 MR. TURNER: ...more than making money.

7 MS. DAHL: Right.

8 MR. TURNER: The rape thing is, you know, the bigger concern.

10 MR. TURNER: And again, I think some of the victims that came 11 and made statements initially weren't cooperative after 12 that.

13 MS. DAHL: Right.

14 MR. TURNER: And again, I may be corrected on some of this 15 because I'm not -- I don't get a chance to keep up with 16 cases like Kevin does.

18 MR. TURNER: But I think there's drug use involved before the 19 rape.

20 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

21 MR. TURNER: You know, if he does have sex with somebody who 22 is unwilling or he's coerced them in some way, I think
23 there's drug use. You know, there's some talk about maybe
24 having someone in law enforcement try to go undercover,
25 but I don't think he's going to do anything unless they

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 use drugs with him. That's our concern there.

2 MS. DAHL: Yeah, right.

3 MR. TURNER: We could be wrong there, but I don't know.

4 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, you know, I was kind of
5 trying, you know, to push for them to get a search warrant
6 on the computer because if he does have, you know,
7 something, you know, of the nature of, like, child porn or 8 whatever, you know, that would be a kind of ace in the 9 hole type of situation, you know. At that point, I think,
10 you know, we could go after him for a significant amount
11 of time depending on what's on there. The other thing
12 that I had explored...

13 MR. TURNER: The probable cause on the search warrant, just I
14 think where we ran into some issues...

15 MS. DAHL: Right.

16 MR. TURNER: ...someone had made a statement about they heard
17 from somebody else something was there. That was my 18 understanding about the search warrant here just recently.

19 MS. DAHL: With...

20 MR. TURNER: Toma.

21 MS. DAHL: As far as with the drugs or with...

22 MR. TURNER: I think it was the drugs.

23 MS. DAHL: Yeah. So this last...

24 MR. TURNER: That he had drugs maybe in his garage or 25 somewhere, or a gun in his garage...

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Yes.

2 MR. TURNER: ...but that was somebody that they were saying
3 that they heard it from a third party.

4 MS. DAHL: So there was this latest victim where she -- she
5 saw cocaine and used cocaine in his garage and I believe
6 in his apartment as well, so she had firsthand knowledge
7 of the drugs. While she was hanging out in his garage,
8 someone came by and she said that this person wasn't 9 really well known to him, that it sounded like he was just 10 someone that was out drinking in the area, and he walked 11 by and saw them hanging out, started chitchatting and 12 whatnot. And so they start talking and she said that the 13 conversation turned to firearms. And his friend that -- I
14 don't know if he -- he's, like, the close friend that I
15 think is a roommate. I'm not sure if he's, like, an 16 official roommate or if he just stays over a lot. But his 17 friend that was there said, you know, something to the 18 effect of, well guns, you know, we've got lots of guns.
19 Do you want to see an AR-15? And she said she saw him
20 lead this -- you know, this guy over to the back of the 21 garage to look at the guns. And so one of the avenues
22 that I was trying to explore is there actually is a
23 Federal date rape statute. And I don't know, I think as 24 far as charges go, it's not the best, but I was trying to 25 explore it from the standpoint of a search warrant because

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 there's been -- this last victim did mention that she did
2 a line of cocaine with him, and then she got sleepy, and
3 that's when she went up to, you know, go to sleep in his
4 apartment. The victim's advocate that was with her
5 mentioned that she had another person come to her and
6 talk, you know, or come forward about this guy and said
7 that she was attacked, and she mentioned something similar 8 as well that she did a line of cocaine in the garage and 9 she blacked out. Now, the last victim speculated, well,
10 you know, he puts GHB in his cocaine. I looked it up.
11 I've never heard of this method. Usually GHB is used with 12 alcohol. But theoretically, I think it's possible because 13 GHB can come in a powder form and, you know, the fact that
14 two different sources kind of repeated this very weird
15 detail of, well, I did a line of cocaine and then I
16 blacked out, when cocaine is an upper, you know, and 17 usually doesn't cause you to black out. It makes me think
18 that, you know, if we were able to get the right, you
19 know, circumstances lined up or the right testimony, maybe
20 we could get a search warrant, you know, under this 21 Federal date rape statute. So that's kind of one of the 22 angles that I was trying to explore.

23 MR. TURNER: Did you and Wayne discuss the search warrant?

24 MS. DAHL: We did, we did. He's kind of where I'm at at the 25 moment in that it's kind of 50/50 at this point, you know.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 We've got the latest victim and her statement. We've got
2 the victim's advocate who mentioned she heard another...
3 MR. TURNER: I think this latest victim is -- there's some 4 issues with her.
5 MS. DAHL: There are.
6 MR. TURNER: And we'll discuss those.
7 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. I think there are issues with her. I
8 think she -- you know, granted, I'm not a psychiatrist, so
9 I can't make an official diagnosis or anything, but she 10 struck me as someone that is very possibly mentally ill.
11 If I had to hazard a guess, you know, paranoid
12 schizophrenic, someone of that nature. Someone that has,
13 you know, paranoid delusions that are kind -- that are 14 based in reality, because that's what I got from listening
15 to her talk is that she was very lucid when she was 16 describing the attack. And all of the Facebook messages
17 support her narrative. It's just that when she gets off
18 topic, you know, she started -- she starts to go off the 19 rails. And so, you know, just from kind of the stuff that 20 I've done with, like, homeless work and stuff like that,
21 she very much struck me as someone that is probably 22 mentally ill, and that's probably why he chose her as a
23 victim.
24 MR. TURNER: I don't know if [REDACTED]
25 if she used cocaine with him or not. She was intoxicated,

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 I know, but I don't know if...

2 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

3 MR. TURNER: I don't know if that might be part of the memory
4 issues with her as well. I don't know that for a fact.

5 MS. DAHL: Right.

6 MR. TURNER: I'm just speculating. It may have been she was 7 just very intoxicated.

8 MS. DAHL: Right.

9 MR. TURNER: And the fact that [REDACTED] might 10 tend to affect your memory when you hit the concrete.

11 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, they told me that they were 12 waiting on her toxicology report.

13 MR. TURNER: The [REDACTED]

14 MS. DAHL: Yes. And that they drew blood from this latest 15 victim and that they were going to test it as well. And 16 so I think depending on what comes back in those reports,
17 that might, you know, be something that maybe pushes this 18 from it's a 50/50 shot over towards...

19 MR. TURNER: Yeah. Well, I think, first, TBI got involved
20 somehow or there was a request for TBI to get involved
21 somehow.

22 MS. DAHL: Yeah, because I had asked -- so I called Wayne when 23 this first happened, and I kind of explained the whole
24 crazy situation. And he said, you know, well, let me make 25 a few calls, because he had never heard of this with the

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 amount of victims. And so he, you know, then got back to
2 me because TBI has this other case that has a lot of very
3 weird similarities to this case. They're working some 4 sort of rape slash human trafficking case that had just 5 kind of a couple of weird details that were similar with 6 someone that, you know, mentioned a cult-like atmosphere
7 in TBI's case. And then you have this girl mentioning
8 this -- you know, this cult and that Sean Williams is 9 involved in satanism. It's very bizarre. And, you know,
10 I was -- I was more or less inclined to think that, like I
11 said, her ranting about satanism and cults was, you know,
12 something -- is a cause or a symptom of her being unwell.
13 But it is odd in the fact that she -- in connection with 14 all of this, she kept bringing up this [REDACTED]
15 individual. And the victim's advocate took me aside and 16 said this isn't the first time [REDACTED] name came 17 up. Well, [REDACTED] is friends with the guy at the 18 center of this TBI probe. So there's just -- there's just 19 weird details like that where it's probably nothing. It's 20 probably, you know, an Occam's razor situation where, you
21 know, the simplest, you know, explanation is probably the 22 correct one. She's probably just unwell and it's probably 23 just a coincidence, but it was still enough to make me go,
24 huh.

25 MR. TURNER: Or they may run in similar circles. I don't

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 know.

2 MS. DAHL: Right, right.

3 MR. TURNER: She might run in similar circles with a group
4 here and a group there. I don't know.

5 MS. DAHL: Right.

6 MR. TURNER: We met with the TBI and, of course, they offered
7 to assist us in any way. I'll get Kevin to come up in a
8 minute. He can fill in some blanks for you and stuff.

9 MS. DAHL: Okay.

10 MR. TURNER: But I think it's a decision on how they want to 11 try to work the case with him. There's a couple of 12 different ways that Kevin has talked about. One is to 13 charge him with the -- what we've got on him now.

14 MS. DAHL: Right.

15 MR. TURNER: And try to work back from that to see if that 16 influences him to cooperate in any way. That's our big 17 gamble there.

18 MS. DAHL: Right.

19 MR. TURNER: The other is we talked about we've got -- I think 20 we just purchased it. We've got two pole cams that we 21 were talking about maybe putting one up downtown and doing
22 some traffic stops and seeing if we can get anything or 23 anybody that's close to him...

24 MS. DAHL: Right.

25 MR. TURNER: ...where they're going to work for us.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Right.

2 MR. TURNER: Again, a big gamble, but...

3 MS. DAHL: Right, right.

4 MR. TURNER: ...you know, those are the -- you know, we don't
5 have anybody I think that -- there's no other way to get
6 in unless it's somebody he knows, I don't think.

7 MS. DAHL: Right.

8 MR. TURNER: Or, you know, I mean, he may be picking up
9 acquaintances or people that he meets out at, you know,
10 night clubs or whatever...

11 MS. DAHL: Right.

12 MR. TURNER: ...obviously, but those are kind of the two 13 avenues we're looking at. I think they've got a subpoena
14 on some of his phone records, which we'll be looking at.

15 MS. DAHL: Okay.

16 MR. TURNER: I don't know what that's for. I think they did
17 that last week, so I don't think they've got the phone
18 records back. They've been trying to get some records to 19 see -- again, Kevin will have to fill in those blanks for 20 us. But that's kind of where we're at.

21 MS. DAHL: Okay.

22 MR. TURNER: You know, even the -- even the list, I don't know
23 if that's girls he's raped or girls he's had consensual
24 sex with and he calls it whatever he calls it.

25 MS. DAHL: Right.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: I mean, all we know is there's a piece of paper
2 with some first names on it.
3 MS. DAHL: Right. Now, I'm pretty sure...
4 MR. TURNER: Now, it's a big red flag, believe me. If it's 5 his rape list...
6 MS. DAHL: Right.
7 MR. TURNER: ...that might be a red flag, but that...
8 MS. DAHL: Right.
9 MR. TURNER: Again, there's no 100 percent certainty in that.
10 MS. DAHL: Right.
11 MR. TURNER: But I think that with some statements made by 12 victims really gives you cause for concern.
13 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, and I've already got -- I was 14 doing a little bit of digging on Facebook. I've already 15 got an idea, at least to a high, you know, degree of 16 certainty who two of the people on that list are. One is 17 by the name of [REDACTED], which I thought that's a pretty 18 uncommon name. It turns out it's his ex-girlfriend. Curt
19 said that she used to work at the deli downtown and that 20 she used to bad mouth him and say that, well, he was 21 abusive. So with her being the ex-girlfriend and there's 22 pictures of them all online and everything like that, and 23 she's on the list, I'm pretty sure it's the same [REDACTED]
24 I've never heard that first name before.
25 MR. TURNER: [REDACTED]

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: [REDACTED]
2 MR. TURNER: [REDACTED]
3 MS. DAHL: Yeah. And the second one is there's a [REDACTED] on 4 the list, and so I was looking at some of the addresses
5 that he has, and he has an address that comes back to 6 Cullowhee, North Carolina.
7 MR. TURNER: Yeah, I think his family is from North Carolina.
8 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
9 MR. TURNER: They're in the concrete business.
10 MS. DAHL: Yeah. And so he -- from what I can tell, it was 11 his mother's house that was in Cullowhee, but his mother
12 and his step-dad were living in Florida. So I think that 13 what happened was they were renting this house out to 14 college kids because through kind of, like, my Google
15 search was able to kind of piece together that this house
16 was being rented as, like, an unofficial frat house for 17 one of the Western Carolina, you know, frats that got 18 kicked off campus. And it initially kind of piqued my 19 interest when I saw this address because it's ten minutes
20 away from the campus and, you know, he likes to prey on 21 young women.
22 MR. TURNER: What campus?
23 MS. DAHL: Western Carolina University. And so I kind of 24 started digging into this, and when I was running this 25 North Carolina address, you know, and kind of looking into

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 it, there popped up a Vertex Building Services that was
2 connected to this address. And so I ran the D-U-N-S
3 number on Vertex Building Services and it came back -- the 4 agent listed came back as a [REDACTED] Well,
5 [REDACTED] has a daughter named [REDACTED] who is in
6 North Carolina and is friends with him on Facebook. So I
7 think that's probably -- there's a -- you know, it's an 8 uncommon name as well, then there's the connection to 9 this, you know, business in North Carolina that her mom
10 would have been involved with, you know, at an address
11 that is connected back to him. So it's stuff like that.
12 There's a -- and there's several more that kind of made me
13 pause as far as, like, names that matched the list that 14 correspond to people that he's friends with on Facebook.
15 One of them posted kind of a very concerning thing. It
16 was, like, back in 2018, something to the effect of, you
17 know, it was essentially a "me too" post where she was 18 saying, you know, my abuser is still out there, yada,
19 yada, yada. So that kind of made me raise an eyebrow,
20 too. But I think that this [REDACTED] is probably definitely
21 the one that's on the list. I'm fairly certain this
22 [REDACTED] could be this, you know, [REDACTED] that I
23 found in North Carolina. So there are people out there
24 that could potentially correspond to people on this list,
25 you know, that if, you know, they decide to reach out to.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: Yeah. And, you know, like the [REDACTED] I mean, if
2 something happened, it may not have even been in Johnson
3 City. It could have been in North Carolina.
4 MS. DAHL: Right.
5 MR. TURNER: And so, you know, that may be -- I mean, I don't
6 know if she's made a complaint to a department over there
7 or not.
8 MS. DAHL: Right.
9 MR. TURNER: I don't know where it could be.
10 MS. DAHL: Right.
11 MR. TURNER: It could have been in Unicoi County, or 12 Elizabethton, or I don't know where, so...
14 MR. TURNER: She may have reported something that we're 15 unaware of.
16 MS. DAHL: Right.
17 MR. TURNER: But I think a Federal statute might help as far
18 as prosecution of that case because -- you know, again,
19 we're assuming a lot. There's a list.
20 MS. DAHL: Right.
21 MR. TURNER: You're assuming this has happened or there's a
22 lot of red flags that maybe point in that direction, but
23 it doesn't mean they're all in Johnson City...
24 MS. DAHL: Right.
25 MR. TURNER: ...despite the fact he lives here, I guess.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, and, you know, if we could
2 get, you know, as far as like a search warrant -- for
3 purposes of a search warrant, if we could try to verify
4 whether or not people on this list are victims, that would
5 certainly bolster, you know, the case for a search warrant
6 as well.

7 MR. TURNER: Uh-huh (Affirmative).

8 MS. DAHL: Even if it's just -- even if we're able to just 9 track down, you know, one or two of them. One or two of 10 them saying, yeah, he did, and, you know, getting them to 11 make a statement, that could very well weigh heavily in 12 our favor.

13 MR. TURNER: Uh-huh (Affirmative), yeah. As long as we get 14 one or two that give a statement and we don't get one or 15 two that goes back and tells him that, hey, the police are 16 looking at you, you know.

17 MS. DAHL: Right, right, right. That's the whole where you
18 would want to...

19 MR. TURNER: Everything is a roll of the dice, I think, at 20 times.

21 MS. DAHL: Right. Tread lightly for sure.

22 MR. TURNER: I think that's why we're kind of waiting on the 23 phone records to see. And again, I'll let Kevin talk
24 about what they were subpoenaing and what they were kind
25 of looking for from that first.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

2 MR. TURNER: But you know if you have any concerns about a
3 case or something, you can come to me.

4 MS. DAHL: Okay. I appreciate that, yeah.

5 MR. TURNER: You do realize that.

6 MS. DAHL: Yeah. You know, this wasn't out of concern, this
7 was more of I was alarmed at, I guess, the potential sheer
8 number of victims, you know, in this case. Because, I
9 mean, if that really is the case that he has upwards of 20
10 plus victims, then I would be extremely concerned as to 11 whether or not this individual would ever escalate or 12 whether or not he would, you know, accidentally kill
13 someone if he's drugging them. So -- and the baby doll
14 thing really...

15 MR. TURNER: What was that, now? I've not heard of that.

16 MS. DAHL: So they found in his safe, in addition to kind of,
17 you know, the ammunition and odds and ends, papers and 18 whatnot, they found an assortment of sex toys, and they 19 found a baby doll that had a hole in it at the bottom.
20 And that kind of really made me pause because that's 21 actually a theme in pretty disturbing cases, you know,
22 BTK, several serial rapists, several serial killers have 23 been found with baby dolls which they have -- or dolls of 24 some sort which they've kind of acted out their, you know,
25 sick fantasies on.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: I was going to say, there's a lot of sick people
2 in the world.

3 MS. DAHL: Yeah. So it's not unheard of for something like
4 that in cases that involve serial offenders, and that --
5 that detail really concerned me as a major red flag, and 6 made me wonder about, like, the whole, you know,
7 possibility of, you know, interest in kids, or child porn,
8 or something of that nature.

9 MR. TURNER: You know when I talked about a couple of 10 different ways to try to make some end roads in this case,
11 you know, if we do start stopping cars and things like
12 that, he's going to know. I mean, they're going to go
13 back and tell him, you know.

14 MS. DAHL: Right.

15 MR. TURNER: So once that starts, I mean...

16 MS. DAHL: Right.

17 MR. TURNER: ...either we get somebody that's going to do
18 something for us...

19 MS. DAHL: Right.

20 MR. TURNER: ...good for us and help us in that regard or he's 21 going to know.

22 MS. DAHL: Right.

23 MR. TURNER: You know, even when [REDACTED]
24 he had Jim Bowman representing him.

25 MS. DAHL: Right.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: Most victims don't go to that length, you know.
2 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
3 MR. TURNER: I mean, if something -- if somebody got
4 accidentally injured on my property, I'm not going to go
5 hire a criminal defense attorney. I might go hire a civil 6 attorney to help me, but, you know.
7 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. Well, or put a steel plate over their 8 door.
9 MR. TURNER: Yeah, or, you know, not release my video footage
10 or things like that.
11 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
12 MR. TURNER: I mean, like I said, there's lots of red flags
13 with this guy.
14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
15 MR. TURNER: And, you know, we're not out to get anybody, but 16 we're out to arrest people who commit crimes.
17 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
18 MR. TURNER: And so...
19 MS. DAHL: Well...
20 MR. TURNER: ...there's a lot of concern we have with him.
21 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
22 MR. TURNER: Again, I'm not out to target anybody unless 23 you're committing a bunch of crimes then, yeah, you ought 24 to be targeted.
25 MS. DAHL: Well, I think this guy is a clear and present

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 danger to the -- like, honestly, I think he's an ongoing
2 danger to the community.

3 MR. TURNER: If -- if, in fact, he has drugged women and taken
4 advantage of them, that's probably going to be what he 5 does in the future.

6 MS. DAHL: Right.

7 MR. TURNER: I mean, if it's worked in the past...

8 MS. DAHL: Right.

9 MR. TURNER: ...don't change a winning game plan, you know...

10 MS. DAHL: Right.

11 MR. TURNER: ... is probably going to be his thought process, 12 which is...

13 MS. DAHL: Right. Well, and what else was I -- there was 14 something else that I was reading about. The doll thing
15 really kind of concerned me, and the list concerned me,
16 you know. I guess theoretically it could be just him
17 listing partners and he has a sick label put on it.

18 MR. TURNER: Right. And that's what I told Kevin. I said, 19 this may be people he had consensual sex with, but he 20 calls it whatever he calls it.

21 MS. DAHL: Right.

22 MR. TURNER: I don't know.

23 MS. DAHL: And that's the only plausible explanation that I
24 could possibly think of, but that combined with, you know,
25 the victims that have already come forward, eh...

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: Some people may like to enhance their thug status
2 with their friends or something. I don't know.
3 MS. DAHL: That's true.
4 MR. TURNER: There's no telling. What do I know, you know.
5 MS. DAHL: What I'm curious too as to where they found this 6 list because it -- it weirded me out that someone would 7 even, you know, make that, you know. Because if you were 8 just going to brag to your friends, you would...
9 MR. TURNER: I wouldn't call it the rape list.
10 MS. DAHL: Right. You would just -- or you would just brag to 11 your friends, you wouldn't write it down.
12 MR. TURNER: Or if I had a black book, as they used to call
13 them, you know...
14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
15 MR. TURNER: ...it wouldn't -- I don't think I would call it
16 the rape list, but that's just me.
17 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, to me, that is a little bit
18 odd or concerning just because -- and, you know, granted
19 maybe I have read too much, you know, true crime and all
20 of that, but it seems like someone that's pretty arrogant,
21 you know.
22 MR. TURNER: Well, he's pretty arrogant. He's -- he's pretty
23 narcissistic, I would say. I can get my wife to evaluate 24 him...
25 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: ...but I think he would be high on the
2 narcissistic scale.

3 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, and, you know, someone like
4 that -- you know, because I ran -- there was a
5 psychiatrist friend of mine and I asked him about like,
6 you know the baby doll and the steel plate. And he was --
7 even he was disturbed by, you know, this. And he said,
8 the only time I have ever heard of, like, a steel plate in 9 front of a door thing was I once had a client whose uncle
10 was involved with the mob, but that's the only time I've 11 ever heard of a steel -- someone installing a steel plate
12 over the door. Which, you know, I guess, yeah, if you
13 were in the mob, that would be common practice, but 14 someone like this...

15 MR. TURNER: He may have concerns about the police entering 16 his residence, or other people entering his residence, or 17 both.

18 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. Well, and when I was going back
19 through -- because Will sent me a couple of reports too,
20 you know, from all of his encounters with law enforcement.
21 There was one report that kind of made me scratch my head
22 too because he reported a burglary and it sounded like
23 whoever burgled him, he knew them. And they -- I think 24 they -- it said he -- they busted into his safe and they 25 stole, like, his passport and some papers, but they also

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 stole two cameras and, like, the SIM cards. And it made
2 me just raise an eyebrow because if you're going to burgle
3 someone's house, why do you just steal two cameras and not
4 anything -- any other electronics, or cash, or whatever.
5 You go for, like, two cameras? And the reason I just kind
6 of -- and maybe I'm reading too much into this, but, you
7 know, the one victim mentioned that he likes to photograph
8 women. And I don't know if he's photographing them
9 willingly or if he's photographing victims, but the camera
10 connection there kind of made me pause as well. And this
11 was, I think, a couple of years ago, but, you know, I
12 thought that's weird. Your house is burgled and all they 13 steal is two cameras, you know. So that, I thought, was 14 pretty bizarre. There's all sorts of weird, you know,
15 details in this that I sit here and think, all right,
16 well, is this a red herring or is this, you know,
17 something legitimate, but...
18 MR. TURNER: Well, I don't think we're going to know until we 19 get a little bit farther along in the ordeal.
20 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
21 MR. TURNER: It's going to be -- it's going to take some time.
22 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
23 MR. TURNER: Let me get Kevin to come up here if you have a 24 second.
25 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: [PHONE CALL - VOICE MAIL PICKS UP]
2 He's not here. Did you have a good Thanksgiving?
3 MS. DAHL: I did. I just stuck around here, to be honest, you
4 know. We had just finished up or wrapped up Grand Jury,
5 our only Grand Jury this year.
6 MR. TURNER: Well, it's better than nothing, I guess.
7 MS. DAHL: I guess. But because I had been around so many
8 people, I decided to stick around here.
9 MR. TURNER: [PHONE CALL] Hey, Petey, can you come on up to 10 the office? All right.
11 MS. DAHL: You know, because [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED]
13 MR. TURNER: You have to be careful around them, yeah.
14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
15 MR. TURNER: We didn't -- we didn't have -- [REDACTED] he goes
16 to Florida during the winter, but my [REDACTED] and my 17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] so there's two stops on 18 Christmas and that kind of thing.
19 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
20 MR. TURNER: But we didn't get together on Thanksgiving just 21 because they're trying to be careful.
22 MS. DAHL: Yeah, it's crazy. Well, and I've had a heck of a
23 time trying to get my parents to, you know, exercise
24 caution because my dad is firmly in the mind set of, oh,
25 it's just the flu. I'm sitting here like, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] So trying to get them to, you know, exercise caution with this has been, like, herding cats.

MR. TURNER: Yeah. I'm not sure how serious my dad takes it. I guess he does, but at the same time, maybe when you get to be 83 or something you're, like, I'm not doing all of this stuff, you know.

MS. DAHL: That's how one of our judges is. [REDACTED] up until recently was holding, you know, in-person hearings. And [REDACTED] was born -- I'm pretty sure born [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

MR. TURNER: I don't know how much of that is I'm too old to do all of this stuff, if it happens, you know, I'll deal with it.

MS. DAHL: You know, I would probably have the same outlook at that -- if I live to be, like, 95 and a pandemic comes along, I would probably be of the mind set if it takes me, it takes me.

MR. TURNER: Yeah.

MS. DAHL: Hey.

MR. PETERS: Hey, how are you?

MS. DAHL: I'm good. How are you?

MR. PETERS: All right.

MR. TURNER: Kevin, we were talking about the case and, of

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 course, I let Kat know that, you know, she can come to me
2 or you if there's any concerns.

3 MR. PETERS: Okay.

4 MR. TURNER: She said that the TBI was kind of working a case
5 similar. I think there were some circumstances similar,
6 but anyway, we'll get to that. The victim that came and 7 gave us a statement, what was her name?

8 MR. PETERS: [REDACTED]

9 MR. TURNER: That's the one that there's some problems with 10 her.

11 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

12 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

13 MR. PETERS: It starts with an [REDACTED] I forget what her --
14 [REDACTED] or something like that.

15 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.

16 MR. TURNER: We talked about it, Petey, but maybe you can 17 share with Kat some of the issues with her as far as 18 credibility.

19 MR. PETERS: Yeah. Did Toma tell you everything we found off
20 her phone dump?

21 MS. DAHL: No.

22 MR. PETERS: Okay. [REDACTED]

23 [REDACTED]

24 MS. DAHL: Right.

25 MR. PETERS: [REDACTED]

MR. TURNER: Man, she is narcissistic, isn't she?

MR. PETERS: Yeah.

MS. DAHL: Yeah.

MR. PETERS: Yeah, very much so. Of course, then the whole --

MS. DAHL: Yeah.

MR. PETERS: ...up there when we can --

MR. TURNER: Yeah, we've got

MR. PETERS: Yeah.

MS. DAHL: Oh, interesting.

MR. TURNER: There's problems.

MR. PETERS: Yeah, we had

MS. DAHL: Oh, gosh. Well, she definitely struck me as

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 someone that's not well.
2 MR. PETERS: No, she's not well at all.
3 MS. DAHL: So, well...
4 MR. TURNER: And, you know, I told you what you told me,
5 Kevin, we can do -- you know, we can look at him two ways,
6 charge him and try to work back from the -- from the 7 ammunition charge, or cameras, surveillance, traffic
8 stops, whatever, try to get somebody that knows him...
9 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
10 MR. TURNER: ...to see if anything comes from that.
11 MR. PETERS: Well, I mean, either way, if we go ahead and do
12 the charges on him for the ammo, we're still going to do
13 the cameras. We're still going to put up the pole cams
14 down there to see what we can get. We'll still stop
15 people leaving from down there to see if we can...
16 MS. DAHL: Right.
17 MR. PETERS: ...find anything like that.
18 MS. DAHL: Right.
19 MR. TURNER: We had a subpoena last week on his phone records?
20 MR. PETERS: Well, the subpoena was to make sure that [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED]
23 [REDACTED]
24 [REDACTED] Toma is doing that for [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED]

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

2 MR. PETERS: So we are doing that. And, you know, I
3 personally -- and I don't know everything, that's for darn
4 sure, but the only thing -- the only way I can see us
5 working this case from this point on is probably the drug
6 angle.

7 MS. DAHL: Right.

8 MR. PETERS: And hopefully if we do get him on something like
9 that, then it will free up some girls coming forward.

10 MS. DAHL: Right.

11 MR. PETERS: But unfortunately, I just don't see this girl...

12 MR. TURNER: I don't -- I don't think he sells to anybody
13 unless it's somebody he knows.

14 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

15 MR. TURNER: I think that he's a drug user and he probably 16 gives drugs to people who are partying with him...

17 MS. DAHL: Right.

18 MR. TURNER: ...and he uses, you know, more than he does
19 anything to sell. And he may -- if you -- Kevin and I
20 have been friends for 30 years. So, Kevin, hey, I need 21 some mar' -- you know, some coke or something. Yeah, I'll 22 sell it to you, you know.

23 MS. DAHL: Right.

24 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

25 MR. TURNER: I'll give you a good deal on it because you're my

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 friend. I think that may be it, but I don't think he's
2 out selling drugs to make money, do you?

3 MR. PETERS: No. Well, no. I don't think that's his main
4 source of income. Now, it may be. I don't know what all
5 he's involved in.

6 MR. TURNER: Yeah, who knows.

7 MR. PETERS: The problem we're going to have with him is he's 8 a little bit tech savvy.

9 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

10 MR. PETERS: Because when we had [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED]

13 MS. DAHL: Right.

14 MR. PETERS: And so I'm sure he's done it with that computer,
15 too. And that computer is a whole 'nother issue that we 16 really don't have any reason to get a subpoena or anything
17 for it because it's don't pertain to the case and it was 18 in our custody when this incident happened.

19 MS. DAHL: Right.

20 MR. PETERS: I don't think we could get -- be able to even get 21 a search warrant on it at this point.

22 MS. DAHL: I mean, the likelihood of anything being on the 23 hard drive? Because if anything is on the hard drive, he 24 wouldn't be able to wipe that remotely.

25 MR. PETERS: I don't know if he would be able to or not.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1           Again, I'm not that tech savvy. Evidently he's a lot more
2           tech savvy than I am, so...

3   MS. DAHL: Right. Because if it's -- if it's stored on the 4           cloud, he would be able to wipe it remotely.

5   MR. PETERS: Yeah.

6   MS. DAHL: But if it's saved to the hard drive of the 7           computer, then there would be, you know, photos or 8           something, you know, of that nature on there.

9   MR. TURNER: If he's as narcissistic as he seems to be, he 10           probably thinks nothing is going to happen to him now or 11           it already would have with this girl. I don't think he's 12           going to...

13   MR. PETERS: Yeah. I mean, I can't believe he's not even come
14           down here and asked for that computer yet because we've 15           had it for a while now evidently, so...

16   MS. DAHL: Well, and I just, you know, wonder about -- you
17           know, because I kind of told Chief Turner about my 18           concerns about whether or not this would be the type of 19           individual to have, like, child porn on his computer just 20           based on like...

21   MR. PETERS: I don't know.

22   MS. DAHL: ...the baby doll and stuff like that.

23   MR. PETERS: Yeah.

24   MS. DAHL: Or even just photos of firearms. He seems like the 25           type of peacock that would take pictures of firearms, or

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 drugs, or cash, and all of the things that, you know, go
2 along with being a, you know...

3 MR. TURNER: Scumbag.

4 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

5 MR. PETERS: He may very well have that. I mean, yeah, that
6 would be great if we could get it. If somebody can find
7 the nexus for us to get the search warrant for the 8 computer, hey, I'm more than willing to do it.

9 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. Well, I mean, we have the ammunition.
10 You know, I guess, yes, it would be a little bit stale
11 with a couple of months having gone by, but you could make 12 the argument that, well, if the photos are there, they're 13 still going to be there.

14 MR. PETERS: Uh-huh (Affirmative).

15 MS. DAHL: You know, the issue with something being stale is 16 what is the likelihood that it's going to be there when 17 we've got the computer. And if it's on the hard drive,
18 then it's there. You've got the ammunition that was in 19 his safe, and you've got -- you know he had cameras and,
20 you know, SIM cards, and things like that. You know,
21 making the argument that you're looking for photos of 22 firearms might be one to make. And then whatever else you
23 find on there is fair game.

24 MR. PETERS: Well, we can -- I mean, you tell us how to write
25 it up, we'll write it up.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Okay.

2 MR. PETERS: I have no problems going after him.

3 MS. DAHL: Okay. Yeah, you know, I would really like to --

4 and who knows, maybe it's one of these that you strike out

5 on and there's nothing on his computer, but to me that

6 seems like one of the most, you know, low risk

7 possibilities. Because if you gamble on a search warrant

8 for his house and there's nothing there, then you've kind

9 of missed your shot.

10 MR. PETERS: Uh-huh (Affirmative).

11 MS. DAHL: But if nothing is on the computer, well, then no

12 harm, no foul. But if something is on the computer, then

13 that could then kick the door open for an in-person search

14 warrant.

15 MR. TURNER: You know, the problem with him, he's got that 16 garage, then he's got his house over here.

17 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

18 MR. TURNER: Drugs could be in either one, guns could be in 19 either one.

20 MR. PETERS: Well, we think the guns are probably -- well, the 21 guns are probably both places, but we think the majority

22 of them are in the garage because that's what she said.

23 MS. DAHL: Right.

24 MR. PETERS: The guy came in and they took him back there and

25 showed him, you know. I don't know. I can't see them

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1           laying out. They would have to be in a safe or something
2           because they could get broke in -- a garage can get broke
3           into real easy. And I find it hard to believe he's just 4           -- because evidently what she said, this guy just walked
5           in off the street and they're showing these guys the guns.
6           Would you go grab somebody walking down the middle of the 7           street and say come on in my house, I'm going to show you
8           my guns?

9   MR. TURNER: And the thing about it is, you don't know who was 10           with him. It could be me, Kevin, two or three other
11           people and they would say, well hell, those are my guns, 12           those aren't his guns.

13   MR. PETERS: Yeah.

14   MS. DAHL: Right.

15   MR. TURNER: You know, that kind of thing. So I doubt if he's 16           by himself a lot. He's probably got friends he hangs out 17           with.

18   MR. PETERS: Yeah, yeah, there's definitely friends.

19   MR. TURNER: There's two or three.

20   MR. PETERS: I mean, that [REDACTED] is always around him or seems 21           to be.

23           telling Chief Turner about is this idea of trying to get 24           in through this Federal date rape statute in that if he is 25           drugging people, you know, that's -- I don't think it's

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 the strongest statute as far as prosecuting or charging
2 him with it, but using it as an avenue to get a search
3 warrant might be something to explore. But I think it
4 depends on, you know, they did the toxicology of [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED] They said that they drew the 6 blood of this latest girl. Depending on how that comes 7 back, there might be enough for a search warrant in that 8 way, too.

9 MR. PETERS: Okay.

10 MS. DAHL: But I would have to see, you know, what comes back
11 on the search warrants.

12 MR. PETERS: But if we did a search warrant on that -- and 13 this is just me asking. I'm not arguing.

14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

15 MR. PETERS: If we -- the guns wouldn't fall in the scope of 16 the search warrant as far as getting into the safe and 17 stuff, right?

18 MS. DAHL: Well, unless you did a search warrant for any safes
19 looking for date rape drugs, depending on where he keeps
20 them. It's -- this thing is hardly ever used, this 21 statute.

22 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

23 MS. DAHL: So trying to figure -- like, trying to do any 24 research on this has been short of -- has been extremely 25 difficult because it is -- when I say it's hardly used, I

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 really mean it's hardly used. Like, there were a total of 2 four cases that pop up nationwide that have used this.
3 And I don't think I would be comfortable, unless the
4 evidence became, you know, overwhelmingly clear cut,
5 actually charging him with this statute, but using it as 6 an avenue to get in might be something. But as far as,
7 you know, precedent for something like that, there is not
8 a lot of precedent. This would be kind of some what we 9 used to term back in one of our -- one of the immigration
10 clinics, creative lawyering. So...

11 MR. TURNER: You know, Kat, it's our job to walk up to the 12 line. I mean, honestly, it's our job to push the envelope
13 as far as we can.

14 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

15 MR. TURNER: Because the defense does the same, don't they,
16 and that's kind of -- doesn't that equal the balance?

17 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

18 MR. TURNER: I mean, if we don't push the line, then sometimes
19 the courts can't tell us...

20 MS. DAHL: Right.

21 MR. TURNER: ...you stepped over the line.

22 MS. DAHL: Well, and, you know, maybe you break new ground and 23 pave the way...

24 MR. TURNER: There you go.

25 MS. DAHL: ...for this to be used more often.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: So who knows. It's -- everything is on the table
2 right now.

3 MS. DAHL: Right.

4 MR. TURNER: Petey, what do you want to -- do you want to look
5 at getting some cameras up and see if that pans out here
6 in the next week or two?

7 MR. PETERS: Yeah. John, he looked at the cameras today to 8 get the SIM card for them. That's the only thing holding 9 us up on them. We've got the cameras in, we've just got
10 to get the SIM cards so we'll have the internet to run
11 them off of. And he said that once he knows which SIM
12 cards to order, he said they'll send them overnight. So
13 the next issue is just going to be finding a place to put 14 them down there. The housing that we have in these pole
15 cams are different than the housing we had in the other
16 ones. These don't look like something that goes up on a
17 transformer as much as maybe on the side of a building.
18 So we're just going to have to scout a good location, and 19 I'll get SI -- SIS started on scouting locations and maybe 20 putting cameras up down there. Because I figure we just 21 -- if we've got them both, we might as well just put one
22 on his place and put the rest of them -- put the other one
23 down there somewhere that we can see Capone's and Numan's
24 where we're having these issues.

25 MR. TURNER: His residence is on the fifth floor, so we're not

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 going to get anything on that building.

2 MR. PETERS: Yeah, we won't -- no.

3 MR. TURNER: So it's basically on the garage.

4 MR. PETERS: The garage. And like I said, that's where the
5 girl said the guns were, and that's where they're spending
6 a lot of time on Friday and Saturday nights in that 7 garage.

8 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

9 MR. PETERS: So if there's going to be any drugs or anything
10 like that, I'm sure that's where it's going to take place
11 is in that garage because he flings open those glass doors
12 and people just kind of seem to mill or come over from 13 Tipton Street and everything. So -- and I think that's 14 where he's luring some of these girls in and everything.

15 MS. DAHL: Yeah. Well, and, I mean, this was several weeks
16 ago, but I was coming back from The Label and I noticed --
17 I think it was [REDACTED] if he's...

18 MR. TURNER: We needed to know that, Kat was at The Label.
19 What day was that?

20 MS. DAHL: There was this guy, like, he was sketchy looking.
21 I mean, that's the best way to describe him. He was kind
22 of dark complexion, dark hair, and, you know, he made me
23 sit up and take notice because he just looked like he was 24 trying to be incognito, but doing a really poor job at it.
25 And he went into that place. And I think when I described

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 him to I think it was Will, he said, yeah, that's [REDACTED]
2 And, you know, he was going in and out of the garage,
3 so...
4 MR. PETERS: [REDACTED] seems to have free range over there, so...
5 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah, yeah. It's -- it's a weird crew over
6 there.
7 MR. PETERS: Yeah, it definitely is, but I think, you know,
8 right now, I mean, I just -- the only way I can see
9 working this case is working backwards to forwards or work
10 the drug angle, I mean.
11 MS. DAHL: Yeah. My only concern is, well, if I charge him
12 with the ammo, he's going to get out.
13 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
14 MS. DAHL: You know, even in Federal court, he's going to get 15 out on bond. He doesn't have enough of a significant 16 criminal history for...
17 MR. TURNER: And he's got the money to make bond.
18 MR. PETERS: Oh, yeah.
19 MS. DAHL: Yeah, right. And he's going to get some fancy
20 lawyer. He's not going to get, you know, FDS. And 21 especially with COVID going on, it would be a real tough
22 uphill battle keeping him in custody with what we have.
23 And so I would be concerned that if I charge him now, he's 24 going to get spooked and you're not going to get anything.
25 MR. TURNER: Let's see what we get from the cameras then.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. PETERS: Yeah. I mean, I'm fine with that.

2 MS. DAHL: Okay. And can you see what you can get on the
3 toxicology, and the computer, and the cameras and see if 4 we can start the process for a search warrant on the 5 computer and the cameras that they've got?

6 MR. PETERS: Well, now, I will tell you with toxicology, we're 7 going to probably be a while on that...

8 MS. DAHL: Really?

9 MR. PETERS: ...with TBI turnaround, yeah.

10 MS. DAHL: Okay.

11 MR. PETERS: Yeah. We're probably looking at months.

12 MR. TURNER: Weeks, yeah.

13 MS. DAHL: Oh, wow.

14 MR. PETERS: Yeah. That's not going to be -- I mean, because 15 we would have to -- I mean, I can see if somebody from the 16 DA's office will do a letter for us to expedite it, but...

17 MR. TURNER: Even then you're weeks probably.

19 MS. DAHL: Wow.

20 MR. TURNER: By weeks, I mean 10 to 12.

21 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

22 MS. DAHL: Oh, Lord. Well, what about the cameras and the 23 computer, starting the process on a search warrant for 24 those?

25 MR. PETERS: The computer, I understand. The cameras?

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Toma told me he had -- like they had confiscated,
2 like, the SIM cards for...
3 MR. PETERS: Okay. Okay, yeah, we have SIM cards.
4 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
5 MR. PETERS: Yeah. We don't have no cameras, but we've got
6 SIM cards.
7 MS. DAHL: Yeah. So the computer and the SIM cards, trying to 8 get a search warrant for anything off of there, that might 9 be...
10 MR. PETERS: Well, why don't we do this then. Why don't we 11 get you and Toma together...
12 MS. DAHL: Okay.
13 MR. PETERS: ...and you can help him with wording that.
14 MS. DAHL: Okay, yeah.
15 MR. PETERS: Because whichever way is best to word it and 16 everything.
17 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
18 MR. PETERS: And then we'll go from there.
19 MS. DAHL: Okay, yeah, absolutely.
20 MR. PETERS: And we'll see.
21 MS. DAHL: You know, if we strike out on the computer, then we 22 strike out on the computer, but there's no -- you know, we 23 don't spook him or...
24 MR. PETERS: Uh-huh (Affirmative).
25 MS. DAHL: ...blow anything up to where he would, you know,

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 stop doing -- we wouldn't get anything off of it, so...

2 MR. PETERS: Now, the SIM cards will be pretty easy, but now,
3 the computer itself, we'll have to send it off to see if
4 we can get [REDACTED] to -- he's not doing any of that
5 anymore, but he can get it maybe hurried for us.

6 MS. DAHL: Okay.

7 MR. TURNER: Somebody with the FBI?

8 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

9 MS. DAHL: Well, and I was telling -- because I was doing a
10 little bit of research on it, I was telling Chief Turner
11 how the reason the baby doll thing concerns me is that 12 it's actually kind of a theme in serial offenders. It has 13 popped up in several serial killers, several serial
14 rapists that have been found with dolls in their 15 possession as, you know, I guess a way for them to kind of 16 act out their issues, to put it mildly. But it's actually
17 something that's a pretty established theme...

18 MR. PETERS: Uh-huh (Affirmative).

19 MS. DAHL: ...in some of these cases. Like even BTK had -- 20 was found with a doll in his possession. So that just 21 makes me wonder, well, and the testimony that -- that was 22 the other thing. And who knows if this -- there are 23 definitely credibility issues with this latest girl, but 24 one of the things that she mentioned was -- and I think
25 someone else mentioned this as well, is that I guess he

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 struggles to have sex, and that's also a pretty common
2 theme with serial offenders is that, you know, they --
3 they struggle to perform in some way, so that kind of made
4 me pause as well.

5 MR. PETERS: Now, this girl is the first one we've had -- of 6 course, we've only had two reports filed, but this one --
7 well, three reports filed. But this girl, she's the only
8 one that has said anything about that. She just said he
9 had done so much drugs. Now, the other ones reported that 10 he raped them, so...

11 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

12 MR. TURNER: But didn't we have a cooperation problem with 13 some of the other ones?

14 MR. PETERS: Oh, yeah. They -- they wouldn't return our phone
15 calls, yeah. That's why I'm saying if we work it
16 backwards and we get him to where we can get him on drugs,
17 or the guns, or something like that, then these girls may 18 come back knowing he's going to go away for that for a
19 while and be willing to cooperate to where we can do
20 something.

21 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.

22 MR. TURNER: Yeah, they may be scared to cooperate while he's 23 out.

24 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

25 MS. DAHL: Right, right. Well, he does have guns so, you

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 know.

2 MR. PETERS: And in that sense, you know, we can work it
3 backwards and maybe get all the rapes on him, just 4 depending.

5 MS. DAHL: Okay, yeah. Sounds good. Well, yeah, I will -- I
6 will get in touch with Toma this week and help him with 7 the wording on it.

8 MR. PETERS: Okay.

9 MS. DAHL: I'm sure there's some -- I'll ask Tom, too, if he
10 has any experience with specifically searching a computer
11 for photos of firearms and if there's any, you know,
12 language that could be tailored to that specific situation
13 that we could use.

14 MR. TURNER: And Kat, while you're here, I want to give you
15 your Christmas present.

16 MS. DAHL: Thank you.

17 MR. TURNER: You're welcome. If you'll -- you can go ahead
18 and open it, if you like.

19 MS. DAHL: Okay.

20 MR. TURNER: If you'll ignore the Morris Baker Funeral Home
21 and Cremation on the side of it.

22 MS. DAHL: Oh.

23 MR. TURNER: That really shows, you know, that we care here at 24 the department. And here, let me...

25 MS. DAHL: Oh.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: You know, you may want to leave it in your car
2 because it does have the handy dandy flashlight thing on
3 there in case you need it.
4 MS. DAHL: Oh, okay. Wonderful. Well, you know, that will be
5 helpful, too, for...
6 MR. TURNER: That's the gift that keeps on giving.
7 MR. PETERS: We look forward to those every year.
8 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
9 MR. TURNER: Yeah.
10 MS. DAHL: Well, that will be helpful too if...
11 MR. TURNER: We meant to have Johnson City Police Department
12 on those, but instead it came out Morris Baker Funeral
13 Home.
14 MS. DAHL: Well, you know, if we go back to teaching classes
15 over at Walters State in the new year, I can use this to 16 shine in the eyes of anybody that falls asleep.
17 MR. TURNER: It's a handy stylus, pen, and flashlight.
18 MS. DAHL: Yeah. I love it. I'll use it to -- you know.
19 MR. TURNER: I know you'll cherish it forever.
20 MS. DAHL: Yeah. I'll use it to harass the guys that are 21 falling asleep on me in constitutional law.
22 MR. TURNER: There you go.
23 MS. DAHL: Yeah, I love it. Well, great, it sounds like 24 you've got a plan going. I'll -- I'll get with him on 25 getting a search warrant together for the computer and the

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 SIM cards.

2 MR. PETERS: Okay.

3 MS. DAHL: That would be the -- that would be the ace in the 4 hole if he has something on there, you know. That would
5 be my dream come true.

6 MR. TURNER: So we're going to write the search warrant
7 looking for evidence of firearms to go with the ammunition
8 we already have. Is that...

9 MS. DAHL: Yes. Yeah. And anything else is just...

10 MR. PETERS: Gravy.

11 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. And, I mean, he's a weirdo. God knows
12 what's on there, so...

13 MR. PETERS: Yeah, he's a weirdo. There ain't no doubt about 14 that.

15 MR. TURNER: Nothing on social media of him with firearms or 16 anything like that?

17 MS. DAHL: No. I did manage to find his Snapchat, and that 18 was one thing that this girl mentioned is that he 19 communicates a lot via -- to these girls via Snapchat
20 because it disappears.

21 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

22 MS. DAHL: You know, that makes sense. So I don't know how 23 much use that would be trying to either set up a dummy
24 Snapchat account or, you know, trying to do a search
25 warrant on his Snapchat, but...

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. PETERS: Well, we've tried Snapchat before. Without a
2 preservation letter as far as them capturing from that
3 moment on, you can't get it.

4 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.

5 MR. PETERS: Because, like you said, it just disappears, it's 6 gone.

7 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

8 MR. PETERS: And that's -- that's another thing, that's why
9 everybody was using it because there's no trace.

10 MS. DAHL: He has sig' -- well, and the other thing that I
11 thought was interesting too because -- and this is just me
12 playing around on my phone. If you put in someone as a
13 contact, it will automatically pop up on different apps,
14 like so and so is also on Snapchat, so and so is also on 15 this. And it popped up, you know, because I put his 16 number, or what I thought was his number, into my phone
17 and it popped up that he uses Signal, too, so -- which is 18 frustrating because even if you did have his phone, it's 19 likely that he uses Signal or Snapchat for any -- what he 20 would, like, deem incriminating, you know, conversations.
21 Signal is encrypted end to end, and you can set text
22 messages to be -- you know, to erase themselves after a
23 mere matter of minutes, so Signal is a pain in the ass.

24 MR. PETERS: Yeah. I don't even know what you're talking 25 about, to be honest.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: I've never heard of Signal.
2 MS. DAHL: So the only reason I know about Signal...
3 MR. PETERS: I told you, we're not tech savvy.
4 MS. DAHL: So the only reason I know Signal is because it is
5 the app of choice for people -- you know, Hill staffers
6 or, you know, government staffers in Washington to leak
7 stuff to the press.
8 MR. PETERS: Oh, okay.
9 MS. DAHL: That is the thing.
10 MR. TURNER: I don't even have a Facebook account, so you're 11 talking to the wrong person here. Petey is more advanced 12 than I am.
13 MR. PETERS: I'm not very advanced.
14 MS. DAHL: Well, Signal, in terms of discovery, is a giant
15 pain because it's basically a text messaging app, but it's 16 encrypted end to end, which means that getting anything
17 from Signal itself would probably be just as difficult as 18 getting something from Apple, if not more. And the other
19 thing is that there are settings on Signal where you can 20 set the text messages to disappear after a minute, after 21 five minutes, after a day, after, you know, a week. And 22 depending on the setting that you have, it just self 23 destructs after, you know, the set amount of time. So if 24 he's got a Signal app where he's texting about drugs or 25 whatever that's set to destruct after every five minutes,

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 even if you get a search warrant and they preserve
2 everything, there's likely not to even be anything there.
3 So and all of that to say, if he's got Signal, he's 4 definitely into some, you know, shady stuff. And getting 5 any text messages off of his phone would probably be an
6 exercise in futility anyway, so...

7 MR. TURNER: You don't remember Mission Impossible. You're
8 too young for Mission Impossible.

9 MS. DAHL: I do. Well, I have seen it. It's been a while.

10 MR. PETERS: Self destruct.

11 MR. TURNER: You know, the tape recorder thing that starts
12 going up in smoke.

13 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah. Basically that, but text messaging,
14 so...

15 MR. PETERS: It sounds like we may have to work this the old
16 fashioned way.

17 MR. TURNER: Yeah.

18 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah, exactly. But who knows, maybe he has 19 something on the hard drive of his computer or his SIM
20 cards.

21 MR. PETERS: Let's hope.

22 MS. DAHL: That would be ideal.

23 MR. PETERS: Lord, I hope he does.

24 MR. TURNER: You know, why do you need a social media account
25 that erases itself? It's either you're going to use it

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 for criminal activity or you're going to cheat on your
2 spouse or something.

3 MR. PETERS: Yeah.

4 MR. TURNER: It's one of the two, otherwise who needs it?

5 MS. DAHL: Or kids misbehaving, you know, teenagers that don't 6 want mom and dad to see, that's the other, I think.

7 MR. TURNER: Yeah, I guess. But none of those are good
8 reasons to have it, so...

9 MS. DAHL: Yeah, yeah.

10 MR. PETERS: No.

11 MS. DAHL: Exactly.

12 MR. TURNER: All right, Kat...

13 MR. PETERS: That's the first time I had heard of Signal,
14 so...

15 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

16 MR. TURNER: What day was it you were at The Label? What time
17 did you leave?

18 MS. DAHL: Let's see, this is...

19 MR. TURNER: Kevin, have you got any questions you want to 20 ask?

21 MR. PETERS: And who was you there with, and did you go over
22 to the garage on Buffalo Street?

23 MS. DAHL: Yeah. This was a couple of weeks ago.

24 MR. TURNER: Did you send any Snapchats, or posts, or 25 messages, or...

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: I'm too old for Snapchat.

2 MR. TURNER: I guess I'm too old for a lot of things, Facebook
3 included.

4 MS. DAHL: I hardly ever use Facebook anymore, but -- I'm just
5 kind of over it. I'm over all of the social media, to be 6 honest.

7 MR. TURNER: Well, we can see what comes up from the garage
8 then if we get those cameras up.

9 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

10 MR. TURNER: Or we can just do good old fashioned surveillance
11 on it and stop a few.

12 MR. PETERS: I think we'll have the cameras up by next week,
13 no problem. I mean, that's definitely no problem.
14 Hopefully they can maybe even get them up this week, but 15 by next week for sure we'll have them up.

16 MS. DAHL: Okay, cool. I was looking...

17 MR. PETERS: Unless we run into a problem with the SIM cards.

18 MS. DAHL: I was looking at the -- you know, because they've 19 got those lofts downtown. I thought, well, you could just 20 do an old fashioned window style, find someone with a
21 loft.

22 MR. PETERS: Does [INAUDIBLE] live down there?

23 MR. TURNER: I don't know. He wouldn't let us in. He 24 probably goes over there.

25 MR. PETERS: Yeah, he probably does.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: Find someone that's willing to let you sit in their
2 living room with a pair of binoculars.
3 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
4 MR. TURNER: I do know [REDACTED] who has got one up there
5 on [REDACTED] Do you remember seeing that article in 6 the paper about the [REDACTED] Well, it's...
7 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
8 MR. TURNER: It's on [REDACTED] isn't it?
9 MR. PETERS: The [REDACTED]
10 MR. TURNER: No, his -- his apartment there.
11 MR. PETERS: Oh, I don't know.
12 MS. DAHL: Oh, is this the guy with, like, [REDACTED]
13 [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED]
15 MR. TURNER: Uh-huh (Affirmative).
16 MS. DAHL: I remember that [REDACTED]
17 MR. PETERS: No, that -- [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED]
19 MR. TURNER: Is that the building he's in?
20 MR. PETERS: [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED]
22 MS. DAHL: [REDACTED]
23 MR. TURNER: [REDACTED]
24 MR. PETERS: [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED]

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: I saw that [REDACTED]
2 MR. PETERS: Yeah, so he would be [REDACTED]
3 MS. DAHL: Oh, man.
4 MR. TURNER: I wonder if he knows Williams.
5 MR. PETERS: I don't know. I don't know.
6 MS. DAHL: Yeah. I remember thinking -- because doesn't he
7 [REDACTED] that's downtown, too?
8 MR. PETERS: I don't know.
9 MS. DAHL: I thought that was the connection. I might be 10 wrong.
11 MR. TURNER: [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED]
13 MS. DAHL: Oh. Well, there is a [REDACTED] and I
14 remember being disappointed [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED] and I got them
16 confused when we went.
17 MR. TURNER: Kat...
18 MR. PETERS: Are you seeing -- are you seeing a pattern here?
19 MR. TURNER: ...when were you at the [REDACTED] downtown?
20 MS. DAHL: Okay. Well, this was with [REDACTED] She's, you know,
21 a defense attorney, and we were talking work.
22 MR. PETERS: I am seeing a pattern.
23 MR. TURNER: Are there any...
24 MR. PETERS: What about that new rooftop bar down there? Have 25 you been to it?

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MS. DAHL: I have not, but one of my coworkers has.
2 MR. TURNER: Are there any -- are any of the bars...
3 MR. PETERS: I was just wondering what it was like. I have
4 heard some rumors.
5 MR. TURNER: Are any of the bars you're frequenting down
6 there, Kat, [REDACTED]
7 MS. DAHL: Oh, no. That's -- that's what's coming.
8 MR. TURNER: Okay. Well, let's go at him that way and let's
9 see what happens.
10 MS. DAHL: Okay. Good deal.
11 MR. TURNER: Like you said, we've always got the ammunition to 12 fall back on if you can't get him with nothing else.
13 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
14 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
15 MR. TURNER: If that's all we've got, that's all we've got.
16 MS. DAHL: Right. I would like to see him go away for 20 or 17 30 though. That would be nice.
18 MR. PETERS: Well, I would, too. And I guess if we got him on 19 the ammo and even just got him on Federal probation, if 20 he's using drugs he can piss hot at some point in time,
21 so...
22 MS. DAHL: That's true. That is very true.
23 MR. TURNER: It would be nice. What does putting a gun on him
24 do?
25 MS. DAHL: Probably with his, it would depend on what kind of

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 gun, how many guns, whether the guns were found with any
2 drugs.
3 MR. TURNER: Let's just say it's guns. What's that going to 4 do for us?
5 MS. DAHL: Possibly push it to seven or eight, just off the 6 top of my head.
7 MR. PETERS: We'll never have to worry with him.
8 MR. TURNER: I won't.
9 MR. PETERS: I won't either. That's what I'm saying.
10 MR. TURNER: Unless he runs over me downtown while I'm walking
11 or something.
12 MS. DAHL: Yeah, I thought his car was, like, a Lamborghini,
13 or a Ferrari, or something.
14 MR. TURNER: It's not.
15 MR. PETERS: It's a kit car.
16 MR. TURNER: It's a kit car.
17 MS. DAHL: Yeah.
18 MR. PETERS: Yeah, he thinks it's a Lotus, but it's a kit car.
19 MR. TURNER: It's not even a real Lotus. He's just saying
20 that.
21 MS. DAHL: That's really funny to me.
22 MR. PETERS: He paid 45,000 for it. They've got the bill of 23 sale or seen a picture of the bill of sale anyway.
24 MS. DAHL: More than mine is worth. Yeah, he had me fooled.
25 I'm apparently not a car person because I thought it was

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 something fancy.

2 MR. TURNER: Well, I'm sure it's lots of fun, but it's not a
3 real Lotus. He's an idiot.

4 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

5 MR. PETERS: Yeah, he is. I'll give you that. He needs to go
6 back to North Carolina or somewhere.

7 MS. DAHL: Yeah.

8 MR. PETERS: He can be their problem.

9 MR. TURNER: He's been here too long. So when the garage door
10 is open...

11 MR. PETERS: He's invested in downtown.

12 MR. TURNER: Yeah. When the garage door is open, the traffic
13 starts, huh?

14 MS. DAHL: He's got that, like, swing of his in there. That 15 was something that they mentioned, one of the girls.

16 MR. PETERS: Yeah, and that's -- she mentioned that and said
17 -- in the text messages where she sent the other girl
18 down there. She said get her on that swing, she'll like 19 that.

20 MS. DAHL: Yeah. Talk about a cast of weirdos, that's all I
21 can say.

22 MR. TURNER: All right, Petey. I'm going to go ride a bicycle
23 like I said I was going to.

24 MR. PETERS: I find that hard to believe.

25 MR. TURNER: What?

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. PETERS: I thought Matt was going to stay and ride with
2 you. You do know where they went, right?
3 MR. TURNER: They went to get ice cream.
4 MR. PETERS: Yeah.
5 MR. TURNER: Frozen yogurt.
6 MR. PETERS: I tried to bribe him this afternoon with powdered
7 doughnuts. He said, I'm on a diet. I said, bull crap,
8 you went and got ice cream last week. He said, well, we 9 actually went and got it again today, too.
10 MR. TURNER: Debbie fell right in there with him.
11 MR. PETERS: He's so full of shit.
12 MS. DAHL: Goodness. Well...
13 MR. TURNER: When does Toma -- is he off Friday or...
14 MR. PETERS: Yeah, he's off Friday. He'll be here tomorrow
15 and Thursday.
16 MS. DAHL: Okay, great.
17 MR. TURNER: And he'll come in next week.
18 MR. PETERS: Monday through Thursday next week.
19 MS. DAHL: Great. I will get with him and then we'll figure
20 out how best to do the search warrant.
21 MR. PETERS: Sounds good to me.
22 MS. DAHL: Cool. Good deal. I appreciate it.
23 MR. TURNER: Enjoy that pen.
24 MR. PETERS: You might want to go out this door because she 25 locks this one up, I think.

***CONFIDENTIAL***

1 MR. TURNER: Enjoy that pen, Kat. I hope you get a lot of
2 good use out of it.
3 MS. DAHL: Oh, yes. I will cherish it. Thanks, guys.
