Non-City-sanctioned social media pages

For any social media page or website that appears to be operating as an official social media page or website without receiving the appropriate approvals from the public information specialist, or if the public information specialist determines the public may perceive that any unaffiliated social media page or website expresses official views of the City, the City will notify such social media page or website that it must conspicuously post the following notice:

This social media page or website is not affiliated with the City of Johnson City or any of its subsidiary bodies. The views and opinions expressed on this social media page or website do not reflect the views or positions of the City of Johnson City. The City of Johnson City has not and cannot verify the veracity of the content of this social media page or website and is not responsible for any injury that results from the reliance on information presented on this website.

Should any such social media page or website refuse to comply, the City will send a cease and desist notice.
